HERRIN LOYALTY

We're all at your back, Herrin High.
We're Orange and Black, Herrin High.
We'll back you to stand against
The best in the land,
For we know you have sand, Herrin High
Rah! Rah!
Go smash that blockade, Herrin High.
Go crashing ahead, Herrin High.
Our team is our fame protector,
On boys, for we expect a victory
From you, Herrin High.
Chee he, Chee ha, Chee ha ha ha
Herrin High, Herrin High, Herrin High.
Rah! Rah!

Fling out that dear old flag
Of Orange and Black.
Lead on your sons and daughters
Fighting for you.
Like men of old on giants,
Placing reliance, shouting defiance.
Oskey Wow Wow!
Amid the broad green plains
That nourish our land,
For honest labor and for learning
We stand
And unto thee, we pledge
Our hearts and hands,
Dear Alma Mater, Herrin High.

Secretary-Treasurer ..... Edwina Cronin

We have been told by the older generation that we have just finished four of the best years we shall ever experience. Sure, we are optimistic about the future, but we are sentimental about the past. We are going to miss a lot of things. We are going to miss those Herrin-Marion games and Mr. Lee's gentle voice. We shall not see the blood on Mr. Venegoni's shirt any more. We shall not be Mrs. Lingle's "little illiterates"; she will have others. No more issues of the TATTLER! No more early rising to catch that bus! We do regret leaving; however, we must move on. But this is not the end-all and the be-all. With the background provided for us by H. T. H. S., we have hopes for our share of success in other endeavors.

Green Valley

The senior class may well be proud of their production of GREEN VALLEY. The plot dealt with the efforts of Silas J. Everheel to gain possession of the valley from Eldon Berry, present descendant of a family who settled it in the Gold Rush days of '49. With the help of his "risen" ancestors, who were disgruntled with his soft-handling of Everheel, and Prim, his girl, Eldon succeeded in running the villain out of the magical valley. And magical it was! Where else did sun flowers ever grow as tall as trees and bean stalks grow as tall as a house in a day.

Excellent performances were given by Robert Quaglia, Millicent King, and Jack Zwick. However, the show was stolen by a wisecracking witch, a mentally deficient Berry from the past, and Everheel's brow-beaten mechanic. They were portrayed by Mary Jo Baggott, Diane Hutchison, Roger Hendricks, and Herman Marlow, respectively.

Many thought the play would be a dud because of last year's successful presentation, THE ROBE. Nevertheless, GREEN VALLEY was a great success. Next year's seniors will have to go all out to surpass it.

Director: MRS. CAREY

Assistant Director: MRS. LOCKWOOD

Dear Marie,
You been a swell pal this year and I've appreciated it.

Members are nominated by the teachers, and a special faculty committee representing all of the school departments, makes the final choices. To be eligible for membership, a student must be in the upper one-third of the junior or senior class scholastically. Nominees are judged on scholarship, character, leadership, and service. The Herrin Chapter is affiliated with a national organization.

The first banquet ever to be held here honoring National Honor Society members and their parents took place April 28, 1955. Faculty members and the board of education were also guests. One hundred and twenty people listened to Sander Zwick, an alumnus of the Herrin Chapter, speak at this banquet.

The members elected last year were Tom Haney, Roger Hendricks, Diane Hutchison, Millicent King, Carol Ann Marlow, and Jack Zwick. New members are Gloria Agers, Mary Jo Baggott, Richard Conrath, Kay Cravens, Gary Engler, Dolores Lindsey, Frank Pollack, Linda Williamson, Judy Wyatt, Robert Booth, John Carlisle, Mary Alice Carnaghi, Lillian Hudgens, Dennis Longwell, and Mary Norma Venegoni.

The play may or may not be "the thing" but tradition set down by the Bard of Avon so long ago has been carried on to present day with greater popularity than ever before.

The Dramatic Club of Herrin High School has the distinction of being one of the oldest and largest clubs in school. Twelve years of continuous activity, directed by its sponsor, Mrs. Carey, have seen the club grow from a membership of 27 in 1943 to its present membership of 87 enthusiastic Thespians.

High standards make membership in the club a prized attainment, for it signifies many hours of hard work, as well as natural talent. To be a member of the Dramatic Club one must have at least one semester of speech and must provide a portion of the program for one meeting.

Dramatic Club members supply the talent for at least two major plays, several one act plays, and numerous programs given at school and at various civic organizations in the community.

Dramatic Club

One of the greatest rewards for participation in these extra-curricular activities comes on graduation night when the much coveted Dramatic Club Pin is presented to qualified seniors.

This year 17 seniors—Regene Blazine, Mary Jo Baggott, Tom Moulton, Roger Hendricks, Gloria Agers, Jo Ann Smith, Lou Bertane, Jim Calcaterra, Lillian Brayfield, Jane Gamble, Millicent King, Diane Hutchison, Edwina Cronin, Robert Quaglia, Herman Marlow, Don Perry, and Jack Zwick were honored on graduation night.

This large group, the largest in the club's history, is due to the eight one act speech class plays given in 1953, last year's junior class play, "The Robe," and this year's senior endeavor, "Green Valley," both of the last mentioned plays using large casts.

Dramatic talent was evident also in the fine one act plays presented at the club meetings. "The Pearls," "Figureheads," "Henry Aldrich," "Angel Child," "The Patterson's Dinner," "Finders Keepers," "The Wise Freshman," and "The Purple Door Knob" were proof of the acting ability of Herrin High School students.

Four one act plays were given to the student body this year. Students were transported from the comfortable living room belonging to the three old maid aunts in "Alexander's Proposal" to the somewhat hectic home pictured in "Tell It To the Morans," then to the captain's cabin aboard the Old Hooker in the search for "Ile," and finally to the crippled submarine on the ocean floor in "Submerged."

The Teenarian Club is an organization sponsored by the local Rotary Club. Each Teenarian is assigned to a Rotarian who gives him counsel and guidance in choosing his vocation.

The club meets every Thursday during the noon hour. After the luncheon, a program is presented. Most of the speakers this year were members of the Rotary Club.

The Camera Club was organized to encourage high school students to participate in an interesting and instructive leisure time activity. The club has a useful purpose within the school itself, in taking pictures of activities to obtain and hold personal experiences for future enjoyment. The students learn how to take better pictures, to use various types of cameras and also to develop, print, and enlarge their own films. It provides a club in which each student can actually participate and gain a sense of accomplishment individually. This year the Camera Club sponsored two feature films in the school and also sponsored the film, Julius Caesar, at the Annex Theater to obtain funds to operate the club. From these funds a Bell and Howell 16 mm. movie camera was purchased as a project for the year.

THE CREED OF FUTURE FARMERS

I believe in the future of farming, with a faith born not of words but of deeds—achievements won by the present and the past generations of farmers; in the promise of better days through better ways, even as the better things we now enjoy have come up from the struggles of former years.

I believe that to live and work on a good farm is pleasant as well as challenging; for I know the joys and discomforts of farm life and hold an inborn fondness for those associations which, even in hours of discouragement, I can not deny.

I believe in leadership from ourselves and respect from others. I believe in my own ability to work efficiently and think clearly, with such knowledge and skill as I can secure, and in the ability of organized farmers to serve our own and the public interest in marketing the product of our toil. I believe we can safeguard those rights against practices and policies that are unfair.

CREED

We are the Future Homemakers of America.
We face the future with warm courage
And high hope.
For we have the clear consciousness of seeking
Old and precious values.

For we are the builders of homes.
Homes for America's future.
Homes where living will be the expression of everything
That is good and fair.
Homes where truth and love and security and faith
Will be realities, not dreams.

We are the Future Homemakers of America.
We face the future with warm courage
And high hope.

Kay Cravens, F. H. A. President, was selected as the winner of this school in the contest sponsored by General Mills—"The Betty Crocker Search for the American Home Maker of Tomorrow."

She received a gold pin, a cook-book for herself and one for the school.

MOTTO—Toward New Horizons

The motto of Future Homemakers of America expresses the purposes of the organization.

"F. H. A. is a national organization of pupils who study homemaking in junior and senior high schools. We work together for better and happier home life for everyone. We think that helping to make happy homes, now and in the future, is the most important thing that you can do for democracy."

The Vice-President, Beverly Barkley, participated in the formal emblem service at State Leadership Training Conference, Lake Bloomington, Illinois, July, 1954.

The club always enters a float in the annual Homecoming Parade, and has had the good fortune to win twelve first prizes. The club's most worthy project is its contribution to the up-keep of a Greek war orphan, whom the club has helped care for during the past three years. By diligence the club has been able to put into its treasury enough to help the child the next two years.

MISS SANFORD

LIBRARY

Under Miss Sanford's able supervision, our library has reached great proportions. After our high school was destroyed by fire in 1948, all the fiction, biographies, and short stories that were salvaged could be placed on one shelf. Now there are more than 7000 volumes of fiction, biographies, and reference books. We have 550 volumes of biography, 275 dictionaries, encyclopedias, and atlases, and over 2000 volumes of fiction. This year the students have had access to eighty-five magazines. Forty-eight of these magazines were used in the various departments, and thirty-seven, in the study hall.

Our library has improved not only in quantity but in quality. During summer vacations, our librarian has spent hours in selecting the best books for high school students. Miss Sanford's thorough training in the classics has made her doubly valuable as an efficient librarian.
